v.

WILLIAM POLLARD, et al.

Defendants.

ORDER

Plaintiff Michael D. Terrell a prisoner in the custody of the Wisconsin Department of Corrections, has submitted a proposed complaint and has paid the $402 filing fee.¹ Because plaintiff is a prisoner, plaintiff is subject to the Prison Litigation Reform Act, which requires the court to screen the complaint to determine whether any portion is frivolous or malicious, fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted or seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that plaintiff's complaint is taken under advisement pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915A. Plaintiff will be notified promptly when such a decision has been made. Plaintiff's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis in this case, dkt. 2, is DENIED as moot.

Entered this 15th day of February, 2022.
